A close-up photograph of a person's hands working on a clarinet. The person is using a small screwdriver to adjust a screw on the instrument's body. The clarinet is held horizontally, and the keys and mechanism are visible. The background is a workshop with various tools and parts scattered on a workbench. A green rectangular bar is located in the top left corner of the image.

Bring your instrument to us if it needs repair. We can provide an estimate of time and
cost while you wait.

If the student decides to stop playing anytime during the contract period, just bring the instrument back to us to cancel the agreement.

All renters
are required to provide a driver's license and a credit/
debit card.

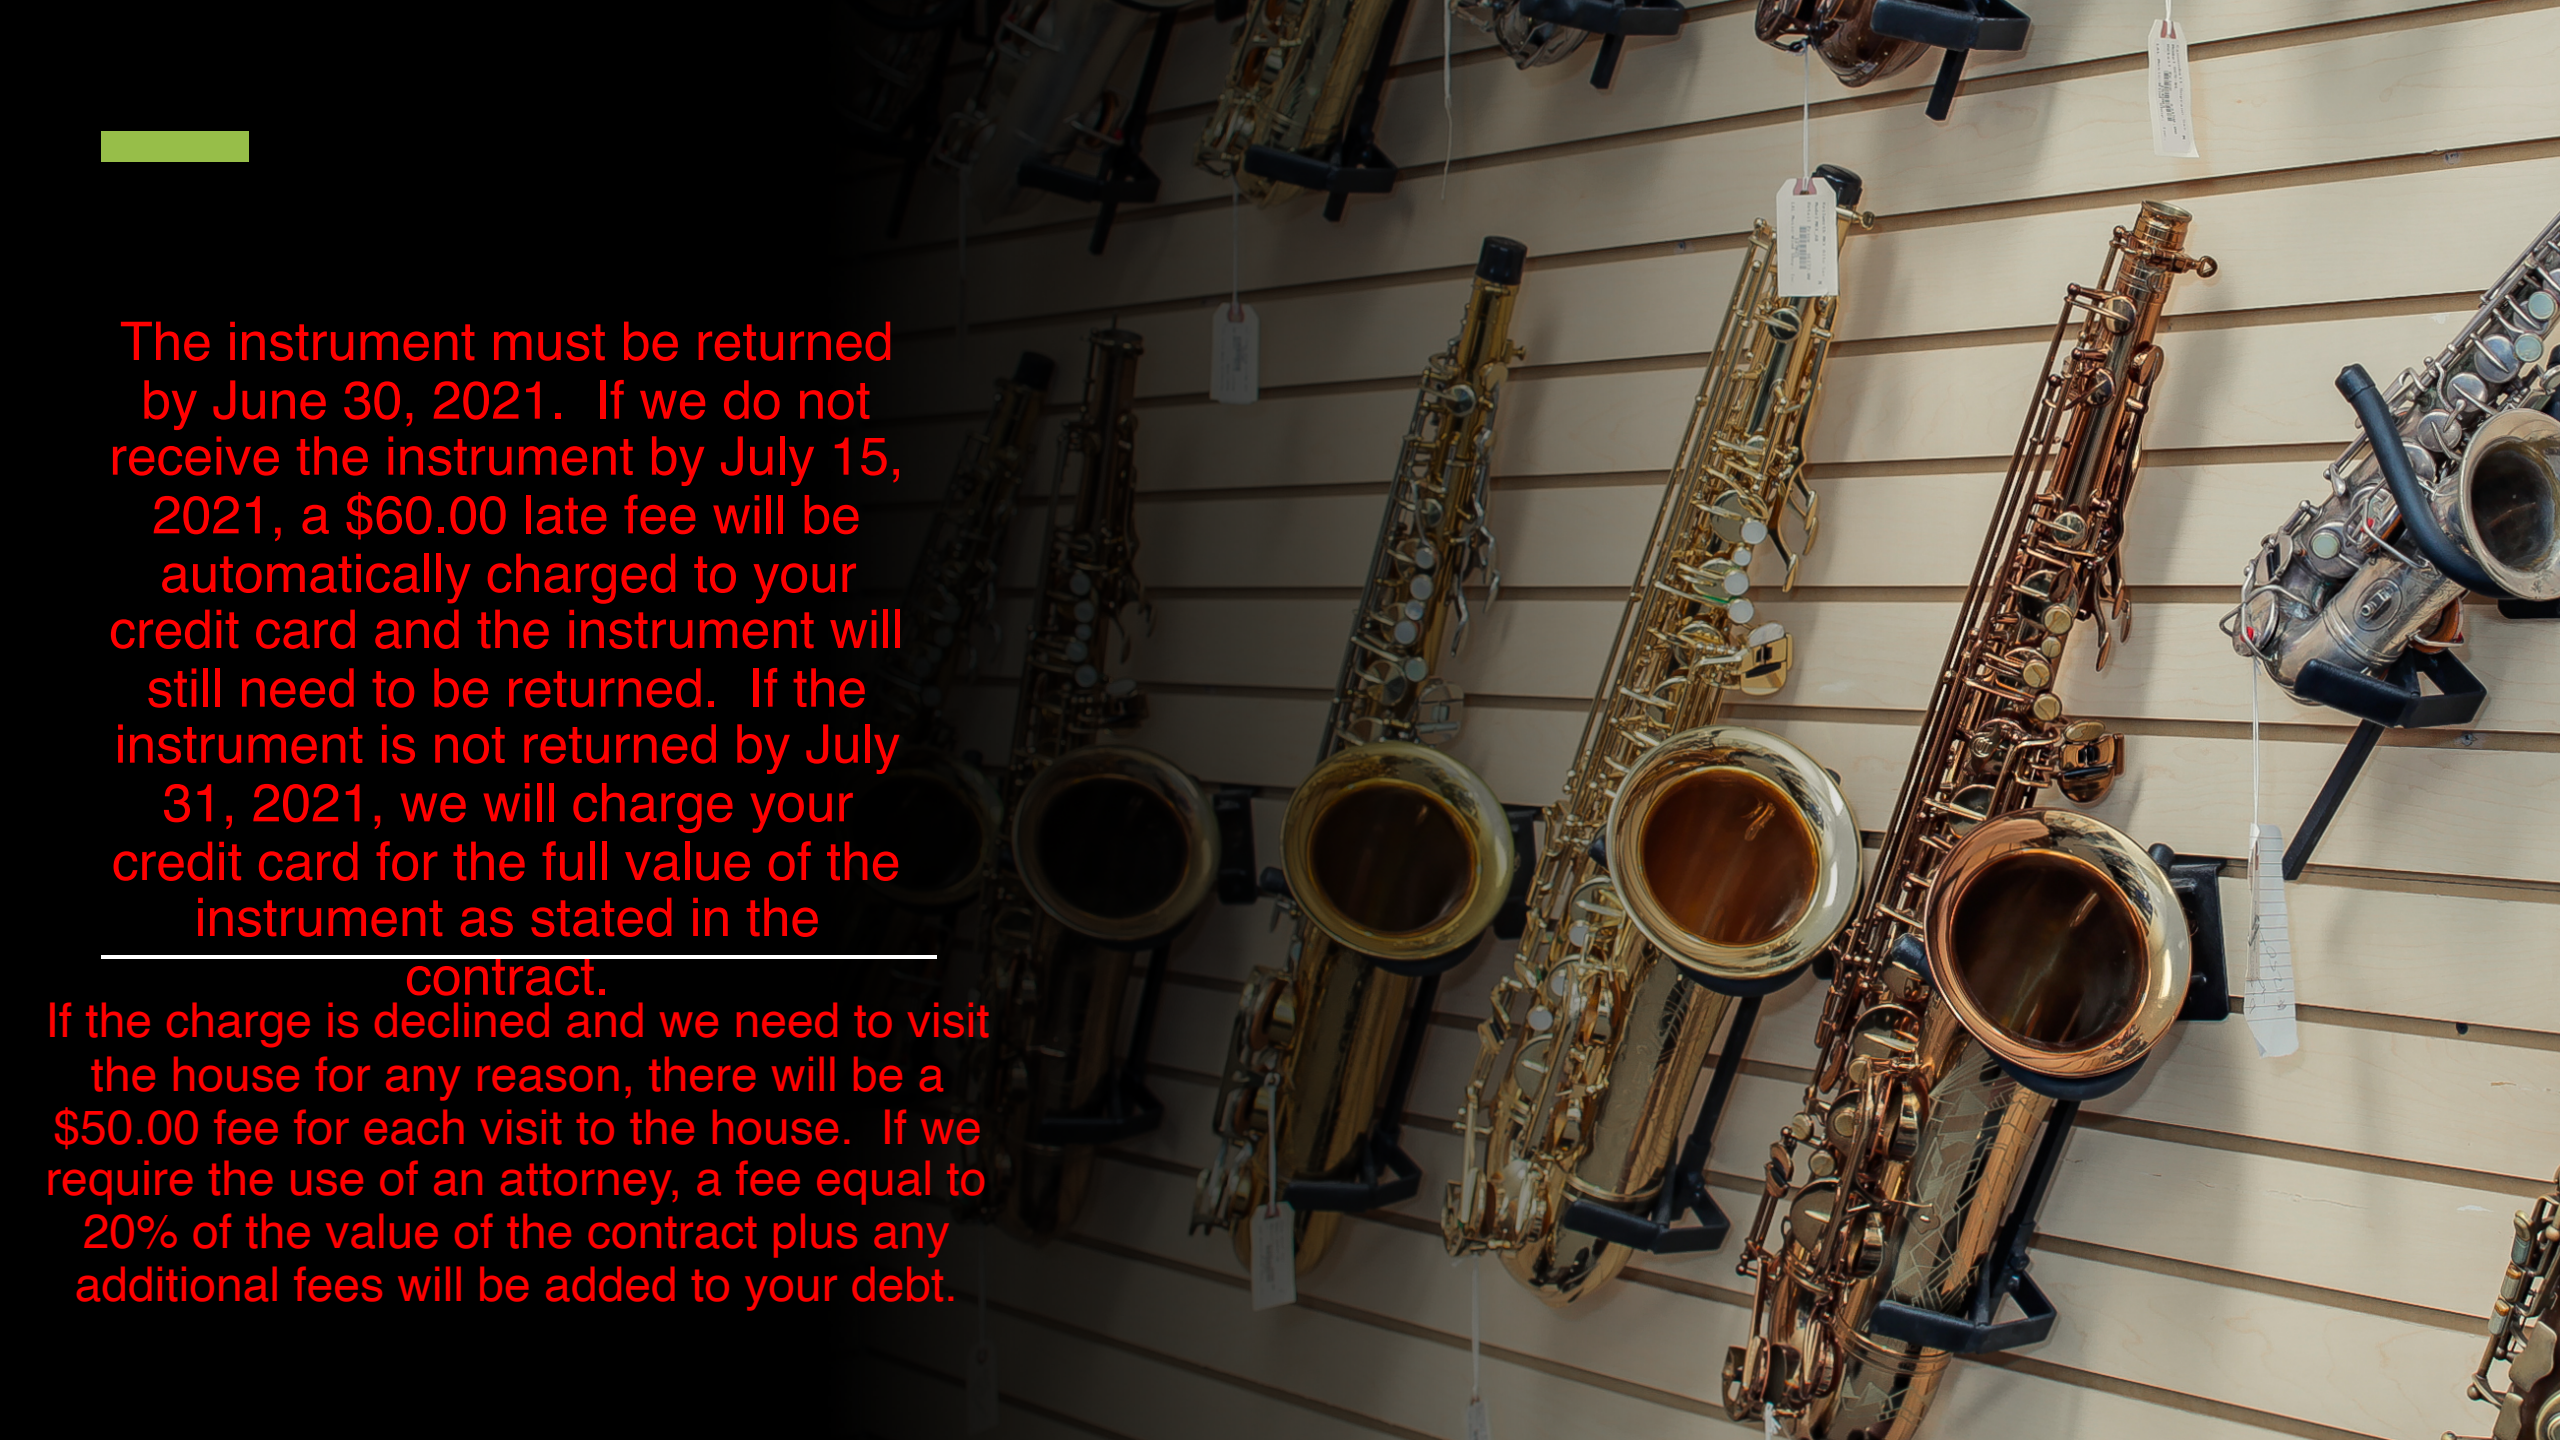

If you have never rented from us before, we will need to view your credit report to determine your eligibility to rent.

If you have a freeze on your credit with Trans Union, we will need you to unfreeze it for a short period. We perform a soft check that will not impact your credit score. Upon approval of your credit we can proceed with the rental.

The background of the image consists of several sheets of musical paper with staves and notes. The paper is slightly aged and yellowed. The notes are black ink, and the staves are thin black lines. The image is out of focus, with the text in the foreground being sharp and clear. The text is written in a red, sans-serif font and is centered on the page. The text is arranged in four lines, with the first line starting with 'In order to proceed with the rental without a credit check, we will' and the last line ending with 'This policy also applies to anyone whose credit was denied.'

In order to proceed with the rental without a credit check, we will need a 100% deposit of the instrument's value plus tax. When you return the instrument, we will refund the deposit at that time. This policy also applies to anyone whose credit was denied.

A collection of saxophones, including alto, tenor, and baritone models, are displayed on a light-colored wooden slat wall. Each instrument is mounted on a black stand and has a white tag hanging from it. The saxophones are arranged in a row, with their bell faces pointing towards the viewer. The background is a dark, solid color.

The instrument must be returned by June 30, 2021. If we do not receive the instrument by July 15, 2021, a $60.00 late fee will be automatically charged to your credit card and the instrument will still need to be returned. If the instrument is not returned by July 31, 2021, we will charge your credit card for the full value of the instrument as stated in the contract.

If the charge is declined and we need to visit the house for any reason, there will be a $50.00 fee for each visit to the house. If we require the use of an attorney, a fee equal to 20% of the value of the contract plus any additional fees will be added to your debt.
